

Life

Life is a long and winding road,
Without a password or a code.

Keep your head high and hope for the best,
Never give up, you can handle the rest.

Search deep within your heart and soul,
For there you will find your future goal.

Don't ever look back if it causes you pain,
Look forward to the sun, without dark clouds or rain.

Although it may seem that all is bad,
Never sit back nor just remain sad.

Walk ahead with pride and you will see,
Things will turn out as they were meant to be.
